

Bullying Prevention and Intervention

Scope	This Policy applies to all school activities, including camps and excursions. It also applies outside of school hours and off school premises where students have been involved and there is a clear and close connection to the school.
The Hazard – Bullying	As a Christian community, we are committed to saying and doing that which builds others up, rather than tears them down, or intimidates them (e.g. Ephesians 4:25-32). This includes providing an environment where bullying is not accepted, and alternatives are taught and demonstrated. Bullying is an ongoing and deliberate misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or social behaviour that intends to cause physical, social and/or psychological harm. It can involve an individual or a group misusing their power, or perceived power, over one or more persons who feel unable to stop it from happening. Bullying can happen in person or online, via various digital platforms and devices and it can be obvious (overt) or hidden (covert). Bullying behaviour is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time (for example, through sharing of digital records). Bullying of any form or for any reason can have immediate, medium and long-term effects on those involved, including bystanders. Single incidents and conflict or fights between equals, whether in person or online, are not defined as bullying. Bullying behaviour can take many forms including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Physical bullying which involves physical actions such as hitting, pushing, obstructing or using one's physical presence, or physical bodily acts, to hurt or intimidate someone or threaten violence. Damaging, stealing or hiding personal belongings is also a form of physical bullying</li><li>• Verbal/written bullying examples include name-calling or insulting someone about an attribute, quality or personal characteristic</li><li>• Social (sometimes called relational or emotional bullying) examples include deliberate acts of exclusion, spreading rumours or sharing information to have a harmful effect on the other person and/or damaging a person's social reputation or social acceptance</li><li>• Cyberbullying which is the misuse of power within a relationship to repeatedly threaten or harm another person using technology.</li></ul> Cyberbullying behaviour may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• abusive texts and emails</li><li>• hurtful messages, images or videos</li><li>• imitating others online</li><li>• excluding others online</li><li>• humiliating others online</li><li>• spreading nasty online gossip and chat</li><li>• creating fake accounts or 'avatars' to trick someone or humiliate them.</li></ul> Cyberbullying can occur on internet services, social media and electronic services that enable communication including, but not limited to, instant messaging, chat services, email communications, online games, SMS and MMS. It can be verbal or written and can include images, videos and/or audio. These behaviours can also be an indicator of child abuse and other harm. Bullying can be illegal if it involves intimidation, stalking, physical violence, threats of violence or damaging property.
What Isn't Bullying?	There are many negative situations which, while being potentially distressing for students, are not bullying. These include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Mutual Conflict Situations which arise where there is disagreement between students but not an imbalance of power. Mutual conflict situations need to be closely monitored as they may evolve into a bullying situation.</li><li>• One-Off Acts (of aggression or meanness) including single incidents of loss of temper, shouting or swearing do not normally constitute bullying.</li></ul>
Signs of Bullying or Cyberbullying	Major behavioural changes in a student may be indicative of being bullied. These behavioural changes may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• crying at night and having nightmares</li><li>• refusing to talk when asked "What's wrong?"</li><li>• having unexplained bruises, cuts or scratches</li><li>• an unwillingness or refusal to go to school, a school organised activity or reluctance to attend other social events</li><li>• feeling ill in the mornings</li><li>• a decline in quality of school work</li><li>• becoming withdrawn and lacking confidence</li><li>• appearing lonely or distressed</li><li>• beginning to display bullying behaviour towards siblings</li><li>• unexpected changes in friendship groups</li><li>• acting unreasonably.</li></ul> Students may also not disclose cyberbullying to adults through fear that the adults may overreact and make the situation worse. Signs of cyberbullying to watch out for may include one or more of the behavioural changes outlined above, and/or other signs, including a student:

- being upset after using the internet or their mobile phone
- being hesitant to go online, avoiding their phone or seeming nervous when an instant message, text message or email appears
- spending unusually long hours online or on their mobile phone
- becoming secretive about their online activities and mobile phone use.

Parents/guardians are encouraged to recognise signs of bullying and notify the School through a trusted staff member immediately (such as a class teacher or School counsellor), if they suspect that their child is being bullied.

These behaviours can also be an indicator of child abuse and other harm.

Pacific Valley Christian School's Policy

Pacific Valley Christian School is committed to the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people, to acting in students' best interests and to keeping them safe from harm.

Pacific Valley Christian School recognises its duty to students to provide a safe and positive learning environment where individual differences and diversity within the School is respected and accepted.

Bullying is not tolerated at Pacific Valley Christian School.

It is our policy that:

- bullying be managed through a 'whole-of-School community' approach involving students, staff and parents/guardians
- bullying prevention strategies are implemented within the School on a continuous basis with a focus on teaching age-appropriate skills and strategies to empower staff, students and parents/guardians to recognise bullying and respond appropriately
- bullying response strategies are tailored to the circumstances of each incident
- we establish procedures for reporting and responding to child safety concerns, including when the behaviour may be an indicator of child abuse and other harm
- staff establish positive role models emphasising our no-bullying culture
- bullying prevention and intervention strategies are reviewed on an annual basis against best practice.

Bullying Prevention Strategies

Pacific Valley Christian School recognises that the implementation of whole-School prevention strategies is the most effective way of eliminating, or at least minimising incidents of bullying within our community.

The following initiatives form part of our overall bullying prevention strategy and our strategy to create a 'no-bullying' culture within the School:

- a structured curriculum and peer group support system, that provides age-appropriate information and skills relating to bullying (including cyberbullying) and bullying prevention, to students over the course of the academic year
- education, training and professional development of staff in bullying prevention and response strategies
- regular provision of information to parents/guardians, to raise awareness of bullying as a School community issue to equip them to recognise signs of bullying, as well as to provide them with clear paths for raising any concerns they may have relating to bullying directly with the School
- promotion of a supportive environment that encourages the development of positive relationships and communication between staff, students and parents/guardians
- promotion of responsible bystander behaviour amongst students, staff and parents/guardians
- reporting of incidents of alleged bullying by students, bystanders, parents/guardians and staff are encouraged, and made easy through the establishment of multiple reporting channels (as specified below)
- students are supported by their teachers, pastoral care staff and the school leadership when they report a bullying incident and during the processes that follow the submission of the report
- records of reported bullying incidents are maintained and analysed, in order to identify students who persistently intimidate or bully and/or students who are persistently bullied and to implement targeted prevention strategies where appropriate
- education of staff, students and parents/guardians on health conditions to promote understanding and to reduce stigma and fear
- promotion of student awareness and a 'no-bullying' environment by participating in events such as the National Day of Action Against Bullying and Violence.

Additionally, all students will be presented with programs of instruction that make the School's definition, intolerance, and stated consequences of bullying clear and explicit. This will include explanations of the definitions of bullying, including the roles of perpetrator and bystander, and the sequence of intervention events to manage instances of bullying.

Reporting Bullying

Students and their parents/guardians are sometimes reluctant to pursue bullying incidents, for fear that it will only make matters worse.

A key part of the School's bullying prevention and intervention strategy is to encourage reporting of bullying incidents as well as providing support and assurance to students who experience bullying (and parents/guardians) that:

- bullying is not tolerated within the School
- their concerns will be taken seriously
- the School has a clear strategy for dealing with bullying issues.

Reporting Bullying Incidents to the School

Bullying incidents can be advised to the School verbally (or in writing) through any of the following avenues:

- informing a trusted teacher
- informing the School counsellor
- informing a student's year co-ordinator
- informing the Assistant Principal or the Principal.

In all circumstances the School:

- takes bullying incidents seriously
- takes seriously, and monitors single incidents of conflict or fights between students, that do not ordinarily amount to bullying, for signs of ongoing behaviour, which may be an indicator of bullying
- provides assurance to the student being bullied that they are not at fault and their confidentiality will be respected
- ensures that teachers, pastoral care and School leadership staff support the student being bullied through the reporting process and the corresponding investigation and resolution processes
- ensures that student leaders support the School's anti-bullying policy and promote anti-bullying behaviours
- takes time to properly investigate the facts including discussing the incident with the student being bullied, the student who was bullying and any bystanders
- keeps parents and guardians of both the student who was bullied and the student who did the bullying, informed of the situation as and when appropriate to do so
- takes time to understand any concerns of individuals involved
- maintains records of reported bullying incidents
- will escalate its response when dealing with students who persistently bully and/or for severe incidents, even if these are not necessarily repetitive
- considers whether the behaviour gives rise to concerns that the student exhibiting the behaviour and/or the student subject to the behaviour may be experiencing child abuse or other harm, and, if so, follows the Child Protection - Child Abuse and Harm Definitions, Identification and Initial Responses.
- notification of/consultation with parents/guardians
- offering counselling to students who persistently bully / students who are persistently bullied
